

LADY TEXAN SUMMER CAMPS INDIVIDUAL CAMPS

June 7-12, 2009
June 14-19, 2009

CAMP DIRECTOR
MICHELLE WYATT

Coach Wyatt is in her fourth year as head coach of the Lady Texans after serving as an assistant at SPC for six years. Before coming to SPC, she was an assistant at Wayland Baptist and Hutchinson Community College and a graduate assistant at Texas Christian University.

CAMP ACTIVITIES

The camp will consist of drills, contests and game situations. which will help each girl improve her basketball skills. Time will be devoted to Let's Talk Basketball; a session will stress attitude, desire, leadership and enthusiasm. Tournament games will be played each day.

PURPOSE OF THE CAMP

The primary purpose of the Lady Texan Basketball Camp at South Plains College is to provide young women an opportunity to improve their basketball skills. The camp program stresses fundamentals of basketball, sportsmanship, self-confidence and team play. High school age campers will have the opportunity to work on team concepts. The camp is set up to accommodate both day and overnight campers. Day campers may commute daily from their homes to the SPC Levelland campus, while overnight campers may spend the week on campus in a college resident hall.

DATES OF THE CAMP

Two summer basketball camps will be held on the campus of South Plains College in Levelland, Texas. The first camp begins with registration at 2 p.m. June 7 and concludes at 2 p.m. June 12, 2009. The second camp begins at 2 p.m. June 14 and concludes at 2 p.m. on June 19, 2009.
