NEXT UP: TYSON INVITATIONAL

The South Plains College Texan and Lady Texan track teams will return to the Tyson Invitational for the second consecutive year. At last year's meet SPC athletes set two NJCAA records with Rondell Bartholomew setting a new standard of 45.84 seconds in the 400 M dash and then anchoring the 4x400 relay team to a NJCAA record time of 3:05.14. Seven school marks were also set.

WHO TO WATCH

KEMOY CAMPBELL

So./Middle Distance

Manchester, Jamaica

Campbell is a 2-time NJCAA Champion and 7-time All-American for the SPC Texans. Most recently Campbell took the top spot at the NJCAA Cross Country Championships in Hobbs, N.M. and he also won the 800-meter run at the 2011 NJCAA Outdoor Championships in Hutchinson, Kan.

Campbell - who has signed to run for the University of Arkansas beginning in 2012-13 - has put together a solid indoor season turning in times of 2:24.96 in the 1000 M; 4:12.21 in the mile; and 8:28.36 in the 3,000 M.

WHO TO WATCH

SPARKLE MCKNIGHT

So./Sprints

Trinidad & Tobago

McKnight earned three All-American awards last season and was a member of the NJCAA Champion 4x400 relay team.

In her last competition at Texas Tech McKnight was edged at the line in the 400 M Dash by former Lady Texan All-American Janelle Redhead and posted a time of 54.14 seconds, a time that would rank 13th in NCAA division I.

Like Campbell, McKnight will also be running on her future indoor track for the first time as she plans to enroll at the University of Arkansas next fall to become a Lady Razorback student-athlete.
